

Brings results, and that is the object. The Mahoning Dispatch carries messages in advertising form to a large number of people in all parts of the county. You will be more than pleased with results if you advertise in the Dispatch.

VOL. XLIV. NO. 1.

The Mahoning Dispatch

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1920.

JOB PRINTING DONE

At The Mahoning Dispatch office, not while you wait, but promptly and in a manner that will please you. Prices are consistent with service rendered. A trial order is solicited. Please place it now.

$1.50 A YEAR

Washingtonville

Easter Sunday was a busy day for church people. The first service was a sunrise prayer meeting held at the Lutheran church conducted by the M. E. pastor, Rev. L. Reed. Both the churches had Easter programs. The meetings had an unusually good attendance.

Drumming meetings are being held in the M. E. Church this week conducted by the pastor. Special music is furnished for these meetings. The Easter program given at the Lutheran church Sunday was well attended. It consisted of choir music, speeches and dialogues by the little ones. Miss Mary Richardson favored with a beautiful Easter solo. The post collection was received.

G. W. Allen was a Salem caller. Communion services will be held in the Lutheran church this morning. Regular preaching services in the evening. You are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gilbert were Cleveland visitors over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinchcliff of Sebring spent Easter Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Senler.

William Hall spent Sunday in Youngstown at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pratt.

Mrs. Ollie Kate Greenwalt, wife of Samuel Greenwalt of Salem, died at her home Sunday evening after a long illness from cancer. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Grim; was born in this place March 29, 1860, age 60 years. She was well known here, being married before moving to Salem 20 years ago. Their marriage took place here.

To this union six children were born, Mrs. Seth Davis and Mrs. Russell Greenwalt of Salem, Fred of Youngstown, Morris Noss and Fannie at home, Mrs. John Cunningham, who preceded her in death 10 years ago. These children with the husband survive; also a sister, Mrs. F. L. Stouffer, of this place. Funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon with interment in Hope cemetery.

Geo. King bought the James Vevo property on Water street.

A family from East Liverpool has moved into the Miss Mary Heaton property.

Mrs. Lydia Boston is spending the week at the country home of her son Frank.

Mrs. David Kennedy and Mrs. Elmer Carlisle were Salem visitors on Tuesday.

The funeral of Ralph Brain, held from the late home Friday, was largely attended. Many members of the P. of A. order, of which he was a member, attended in a body. Some of the out-of-town relatives and friends were Mrs. Annie Hotchkiss and son Douglas of Monesson, Pa., Robert Brain and son Earl of Frostburg, Md., Simon Brain of Mystic, Iowa, Albert Brain of Foster, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Florence Brain and daughters of Homestead, Timothy Brain and family of Deerfield, Miss Gertrude Brain of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Lizzie Brain and family of New Waterford, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Calladine and Mrs. Madeline Grindle and Mrs. Frank Paul of Leontona, Mrs. Wm. Heron and daughter Mary of Calla. The relatives returned to their homes this week.

Albert Needham and wife of Canton and Geo. Needham of Youngstown spent Sunday here at the home of their parents.

The marriage of Geo. Needham of Youngstown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Needham of this place, to Miss Laura Love of Youngstown took place Wednesday at Allama, Pa. After a short wedding trip through the east they will be at home to friends at 42 Delaware Ave., Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. George Firth, daughter Arlette and son Lloyd and Miss Ethel Frankford motored to Akron Sunday and spent a pleasant day among relatives.

Mrs. Wm. Senior of Sebring visited here this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Longbottom and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ballantine and sons of Leontona were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Woods.

W. G. Wellart and family of Leontona spent Sunday here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Wellart.

Leo Bowker and family moved into the property on Union street recently purchased from F. L. Stouffer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McNeal and daughter were Sunday guests of his parents in Unionville.

Pred Fenstermaker of East Palestine was at the home of O. Bossert on Tuesday.

Mrs. Charity Roller and son Eugene visited in Youngstown at the home of her son Roy, a few days the past week.

Mrs. Earl Chamberlain and daughter Vera of Leontona spent Thursday here with friends.

Charles Holt of Pittsburgh spent Easter Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Holt.

Mrs. Jesse Getz of Salem spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wellart.

Mrs. Wm. Pittman and children were Easter guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sanderback of East Palestine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lewis were Sunday guests of relatives in East Palestine. Relatives received word of the arrival of a little daughter last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davis in Sharon, Pa.

Ed Frankford, who was off duty the past six months on account of sickness, is again able to work at his trade and is doing carpenter work in Leontona. Homer Heinzelman is assisting him.

Alva Boston and wife of Kenmore, O., spent Monday among relatives here. They are on their way to Massachusetts, where they will spend several weeks with her parents.

Your Fordson Tractor, Plow and Harrow is at Fowler's Ford Garage, Canfield. Now is the time when it will be decidedly advantageous to possess this fine labor-saving equipment, call and let us talk to you further about this matter.

It's a poor rule that won't work both ways, but it's a poorer one that won't work at all.

It's a wise plan never to put off till tomorrow what you shouldn't do at all.

GEEBURG

April 7.—A. L. Hinch of Canfield called at Arlie Miller's, Sunday.

Uriah Yeager and Harold Secret called in Berlin, Sunday.

Misses Flora and Blanche McKenzie were in Youngstown, Friday.

Mrs. Samuel Gault and Miss Wilma Gallagher called at Gibson Gault's on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Handwork, daughter Mildred and son Myron of Youngstown, Mr. and Mrs. Friend Fenton and son Wilbur of North Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Rhodes and daughter Deulah May of Windham, Amos Rhodes, John Rhodes and Miss Esther Miller were Easter guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Rhodes. A delicious dinner was enjoyed.

Arlie Miller spent Monday in Canfield.

Miss Bertha Musser went to Salem Friday, to take treatment from a chiropractor. Friends are glad to hear that she is receiving great benefit from the treatment and is recovering as rapidly as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McKenzie visited home folks here, Sunday.

Harold Secret called on Clarence and Calvin McKenzie, Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Secret called on Miss Bertha Musser, Sunday.

Miss Ava McKenzie visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McKenzie, Sunday.

James Leonard called at David Berkey's, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Gault called on the former's brother, Gibson Gault, Thursday.

Quite a number of young people from here attended the play, "Clubbing a Husband," at Rosemont, Wednesday night.

James Leonard called on H. H. McKenzie, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Gault, and Mrs. Inez Greteinger ate their Easter dinner with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Gault.

Several of the young folks of the community attended the play, "East Lynne," in Ellsworth last Thursday night.

Miss Flora McKenzie left, Sunday, for Alliance, where she is employed.

Miss Flora McKenzie visited the Geeburg school Thursday afternoon.

Misses Flora McKenzie, Wilma Gallagher and Blanche McKenzie and Uriah and Howard Yeager spent Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie James near Lordstown.

Miss Lulu Yeager, who was very ill for several days, is much improved.

Mrs. Cornelia Miller, who was recovering, suffered a relapse, but is again able to be up.

Miss Martha Hull visited Clara Williams, Sunday.

Clarence McKenzie visited Charlie Conner, Sunday.

David Berkey and family visited Frank Barney and family, Sunday.

Mike Toth and daughter Muey of Jackson were at Youngstown, Friday.

Frank Barney and son Frank were in Youngstown, Saturday.

Clarence McKenzie was in Rosemont and Jackson, Saturday.

Miss Josephine Yeager has been ill for several days and unable to attend school.

A beautiful April shower that brings May flowers has changed to April snows, which farmers of the neighborhood hope will bring a fresh flow of sap from the maple trees.

Quite a number of farmers have spring plowing well started and some hushers have gardens and potatoes planted.

Sight of Myers' Ford assured us. When we saw him come one day. That he was coming just to see us. And would n' long die visit pay.

We were then all out and playing. And he knocked "flies" with a pep. But when he said that he was leaving. We wished he wouldn't go a step!

—With apologies to Longfellow.

NORTH LIMA

April 7.—Bishop L. H. Segar of Naperville, Ill., will speak in the North Lima Evangelical church Saturday evening, April 10, at 7:45. This will afford the people of the community an opportunity to hear one of the ablest men of the Evangelical Association. Rev. Segar will assist on the following day at the dedication services of the Evangelical church in New Springfield.

Easter services in the village churches were well attended. The three churches united in a song service in the Reformed church in the evening.

A meeting of citizens was held on Tuesday evening to discuss the gas situation. There is talk of a new company being formed and some new wells being drilled. By permission of the state utilities commission, the North Lima Gas Co. on April 1 shut off the supply of gas from this village.

Several suits have been instituted against the company for damage.

Mrs. Aaron C. Pfau died Saturday at her home in Youngstown following a long illness. She was a sister of Mrs. Cornelius Wisler and son, Lucinda Stiller of this place, and had many friends here. Burial was in New Springfield.

F. E. Mentzer and wife of Youngstown, Ralph Patterson and wife of Niles and J. O. Entriek and family were Easter guests at H. E. Menzer's.

PATMOS

April 7.—Mrs. Wm. King was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Leonard, of near Ashtabula, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Martin and little daughter, Virginia, of Alliance, are visiting Mrs. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Kegg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Middleton visited relatives in Alliance last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Kegg were the recipients of a fine miscellaneous shower given them last Saturday night at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Kegg. All enjoyed the occasion. The young couple received a number of nice presents.

Fred Myers will give a stereopticon lecture at the Patmos community club Friday evening, April 9, under the auspices of the Patmos community club. Everybody invited. The lecture is on the Philippine Islands and is well worth hearing.

ELLSWORTH

April 7.—Winteringers. John Davis and Mrs. Hubler of Warren called here recently on J. F. Schaefer and family.

Grange met Tuesday evening. The lecturer planned a mock trial.

Harry Wolf and family, who have rented H. W. Spaulding's farm, moved recently.

Miss Pauline Schaefer spent Friday and Saturday with friends in Youngstown.

Delbert and Donald Ripley have whooping cough.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

Mrs. Alfred Schaefer was in Youngstown, Friday.

Farmers are busy sowing oats.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith moved recently to Rosemont, occupying the property owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kinzie.

Milton Florence was in Youngstown recently.

Several from here attended a dance in Canfield last Saturday night.

"Chuckles and the Baby," a comedy, will be presented in grange hall, Friday evening, April 9.

James Eckroide, spending a few days here while recovering from his illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNeilly and son Joseph of Youngstown spent Easter here with J. F. Schaefer and family.

Esther Goesser spent Friday and Sunday here with her parents.

Miss Davis of Newton Falls spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Florence.

Harry Schaefer has returned to Youngstown after spending a few days at his home here.

Mrs. Harold Van Ness of Youngstown spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hammond.

Wedding bells will soon ring. Guests who.

The ladies of Rosemont will present "Clubbing a Husband" at Berlin Center Wednesday evening, April 14.

The Woman's Missionary Society met Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. C. Allen and elected officers.

The funeral of Lysias A. Young was held last Friday forenoon from the M. E. Church and was largely attended. Interment was made in the village cemetery. Mr. Young was stricken with apoplexy while engaged in road work at Berlin Center and death resulted soon after being brought to his home. Deceased was born in Canfield township, April 3, 1855, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young. Most of his life was spent here on the farm where he died. In 1886 he was married to Miss Minnie Walter, who survives with the following children: Granville of Cleveland, Mrs. J. R. Milligan of Youngstown, Mrs. Cecil Martin of Canfield, Beaman, Frank and Bennet of this place; also nine grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Nettie Loughlin, of Ellsworth.

Card of Thanks.—We wish to express our thanks for the many kindnesses shown by friends and neighbors, and especially for the flowers from the Ladies' Aid and the grange and employees of the state highway department after the death of our husband and father, L. A. Young—Mrs. L. A. Young and family.

A. F. Yeager of Ellsworth township was highly honored when he was presented with a fine heifer calf from his thoroughbred registered Holstein cow who broke her leg several months ago. The veterinary ordered her killed, but he took charge of her himself and has the cow and a fine thoroughbred calf for his work.

Berlin Center basketball team having won the county championship will be given a banquet Wednesday evening in the Berlin auditorium; also will be given one in Youngstown later and receive the silver cup won by the team.

Ellsworth grange met Tuesday evening. After the business meeting there was a mock trial. Hugh Bowman acted as judge. Pauline Schaefer sued Warren Manchester for $500 damages for breach of promise. The jury returned the following verdict: That the plaintiff receive 45 cents, and as an example to other young folks be spanked and sent home.

NEW BUFFALO

April 7.—The Social Sister's Club will meet Wednesday, April 14, at the home of Mrs. Irvin.

Roll call, answer with your favorite flower; reading of minutes. You are to bring a baby picture of yourself and guess who's who. Topic, spring flowers.

Elmer Biddle and family spent Sunday afternoon at George Bishop's in Columbiana.

Sunday guests at Tom Abblett's were Mrs. Minnie Carbaugh and daughter, Mrs. Oscar Sarver and son, Ada Fry and Evelyn and Lila Clemons.

Mrs. Perry Esterly and Mrs. Elmer Painter were in Youngstown, Friday.

Archibald Abblett is working for the Youngstown Awning Co.

Elmer Painter sold his Overland last week and bought a Ford.

Edward Swank has the mumps.

Mrs. Perry Esterly got a Ford last week. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Abblett and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Painter and son Robert were in Canfield, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mullins and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oliver of Youngstown spent Sunday at Ed Moff's.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Holland spent a few days last week with the former's brother in Hubbard.

Mrs. Ed Moff attended church in Youngstown, Sunday morning.

A. C. Meeker was in Warren, Monday.

Wes Picketer returned home to Pittsburgh, Friday. Oliver Moff returning with him to spend a few days.

Ray Smith and wife spent Saturday at Elmer Rothgeb's.

Ethan Hitchcock is working at Archie Beard's.

Laston Frederick of Cleveland was here a few days last week.

Fred Kriner spent Saturday night in Youngstown.

Mary Lynn fell down cellar one day last week and was badly hurt.

Mrs. Archie Beard and daughter Nita and Iris were in Columbiana on Saturday.

Many a man who has never even had wants will allow bad habits to grow on him.

MILLVILLE

April 7.—The Easter program presented by our Sunday school on Sunday morning was well rendered. Much interest was shown throughout the entire program which was a lengthy one. Every department responded, and a large offering was lifted which will be used for missionary purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Roller of Wheeling, W. Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oesch of Canton spent Easter here with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roller.

Lester Crutchley and Homer Reese spent Thursday evening with Joseph Chamberlain at Grandview.

Mrs. Lillie Greenamyer of Salem was entertained, Sunday, by her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Reese.

Frank Oesch of Damascus spent Sunday here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. G. Wells and sons Peter and Noble of Coshen road were among those from a distance to attend the Easter exercises here, Sunday morning.

Mrs. Hannah Moore of Salem spent Tuesday here with her mother, Mrs. Ann Reese.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.

Mr. McChristian was in Alliance, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bailey and daughter recently spent a few days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caranah of Youngstown were here over Sunday with her parents, Monroe Klingeman and wife.

Myron Arnold of Youngstown spent Friday and Saturday here with his parents.